General Terms and Conditions of Internet Download Use

08/2009

1. Data Use

The information presented and available on the website www.ads-tec.de may be used and downloaded without restriction. The information may not be disseminated for public or commercial purposes or for any other exploitation in the terms of §§ 15 ff. and 69 c of the German Copyright Act without obtaining the prior written approval of ads-tec GmbH (hereinafter, "ads-tec").

2. Copyrights

Unless specified otherwise, all logos, trademarks, datasheets, presentations, drawings and information are protected by copyright. Without ads-tec's written approval, such logos, trademarks, etc. may only be used in accordance with these Terms and Conditions or the Technical Specifications (e.g. datasheets) and/or pursuant to the information contained in the text on the website.

If copyright or other property right notices are contained in the downloaded information, such notices may not be removed but must be maintained and reproduced.

3. Third-Party Rights

ads-tec does not represent or warrant that the use of the presented content cannot infringe on the rights of third parties not related to or associated with ads-tec.

4. Transfer of Rights

Except for the aforementioned restricted approval, neither any license nor claim nor any copyright to the information is hereby granted or transferred by ads-tec or any third party. The retrievable contents, particularly information/datasheets, may contain or refer to trademarks, patents, protected information, technologies, products, processes or other trademark rights of ads-tec and/or third-parties.

Neither any license nor any claim to such trade-marks, patents, business secrets, technologies, products, processes or other trademark rights are hereby granted or transferred by ads-tec and/or third parties.

5. Technical Documentation

ads-tec does not provide any guarantees regarding the precision or accuracy of the information. ads-tec does not assume any liability or responsibility for errors or omissions in the contents of the technical documentation (particularly datasheets, assembly manuals, handbooks, test protocols, laboratory datasheets, etc.). All information to be found in the technical documentation is hereby issued without any express, implicit or tacit guarantee. Such information does not contain any agreements on quality, does not describe any quality common in the trade and does not constitute any warranted features or warranty regarding the fitness of products for any particular purpose.

6. Liability

Any liability on the part of ads-tec for damage or viruses that could impair computers, equipment or other property of users or downloaders based on access to the website is hereby excluded.

The above limitations and exclusions of liability shall not apply in the case of compulsory liability, e.g. in accordance with the Product Liability Act, in the event of damage due to intentional action, gross negligence, injury to life, limb or health or the breach of material contractual duties. Damage compensation claims relating to the breach of material contractual duties shall be limited, however, to the foreseeable damage typically stipulated in contracts, except in the case of intentional action or gross negligence or liability due to injury to life, limb or health. No reversal of the burden of proof to the detriment of the user shall be associated with this provision.

ads-tec does not assume any guarantees regarding the precision or accuracy of the information. ads-tec does not assume any liability or responsibility for errors or omissions in the contents of the technical documentation (particularly datasheets, assembly manuals, handbooks, etc.).

7. Information Content

Although ads-tec always endeavors diligently to ensure that information and contents are accurate and up-to-date with the latest state of technology, information might be technically imprecise and/or contain typographical errors. ads-tec constantly endeavors to update information and contents at reasonable intervals.

ads-tec hereby reserves the right to change, correct and/or improve the information and the products described in this information at any time without notice, to the extent reasonable for the user. This likewise applies to changes promoting technical progress.

The receipt of technical documentation (particularly datasheets, assembly manuals, handbooks, test protocols, laboratory datasheets, etc.) shall not entail any requirement on the part of ads-tec to provide information on any changes in products and/or technical documentation. Any arrangements to the contrary shall only apply if expressly confirmed in writing by ads-tec.

Any updates by ads-tec shall not exonerate users or downloaders from the duty to inform themselves regularly of the current information and contents available on the ads-tec website (www.ads-tec.de).

8. Applicable Law

Regarding the application of laws, exclusively German law shall apply, to the exclusion of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods.
